LYNCH OPPOSED FOR PUBLIC PRINTER

ALLEGED BACKERS.

Candidate Attacked by Non-Union Men and Charge is Made That He Never was a Democrat.

Washington, April 15.—Announcement that James M. Lynch, president of the International Typographical Union, is slated for the job of Public Printer, has thrown a bomb into local Democratic circles, especially in the primery. Secret conferences of protest are under way today. There is war in the ranks.

Lynch will be opposed biterly by a large percentage of the government printers who claim allegiance to the Democratic party.

Lynch is branded as a professional labor union man who has been out of the actual work of printing for a long term of years. His appointment is backed by the Lynch element of the Typographical Union, which in the case of the Government Printing Office, happens to be a large majority of Republican holders of positions .

Two hundred Democrats, who went to their homes to vote, in the last campaign, and who contributed $1,-200 the Wilson fund are leaders in the fight against Lynch.

The strife involves not only Democratic politics but also Typographical Union politics.

Lynch, it is claimed, has been opposed for three years in the Columbia Union of the International body. Only once has he succeeded in obtaining the indorsement of the local body.

He is said to be at the head of the Wahnets faction of the Typographical Union. There has been for years, a bitter fight betwen this element and the anti-Lynch movement. Now it is centering around his proposed appointment to the government berth.

His opponents are protesting that his rule would mean unpleasant conditions for them. Non-union men are claiming that he would close the shop and require every employe to have a union card. This was decided as unconstitutional in the Roosevelt administration, but it is believed that Lynch would have the power to force such action without violating the rules of the civil service under which government printers work.

The anti-Lynch man are branding him with the accusation that he has never been a strong Democrat. They say that his efforts have been devoted chiefly to labor union politics in the past twenty years, and that his work for the Democratic party has been extremely weak.

Furthermore, the Democratic faction in the government printery and in the District are opposed because it savors of playing into the hands of the Republicans who hail his proposed appointment with extreme glee. He would be able to boost their cause, while at the same time he could play strongly for the favor of the Lynch faction of the International

Many leaders in the International and in the American Federation of Labor are back of Lynch because they want a member of the inner circle in an important government berth. It might enable them, they believe, to accomplish unionization in the shop even more effectively that it is now organized.

PAVING ALLEYS AND STREETS.

Dr. E. A. Gorman, health officer, states it is the intention of the health department to use every effort to get the people of Alexandria to favor the paving of all alleys and streets in the city as fast as possible. Such improvements are highly beneficial to the residents of the city from a sanitary standpoint, besides greatly improving the value of property. It is from a sanitary standpoint however, that the health department is interested.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Jose Fernandez, a prominent liberal politician and known throughout Cuba as "Chichi" Fernandez, was shot and killed yesterday afternoon while in the principal cafe at Cienfuegos. The shooting marks the first stage of the vendetta provoked by assasination Saturday of Ceferino A. Mendez, who recently was selected conservative mayor of Cienfuegos. Mendez was waylaid in the streets of Cienfuegos and riddled with bullets.

Prompted, it is alleged, by jealousy, Cleveland Prince a well-to-do farmer of Wayne county, N. C., yesterday went to a hospital in Goldsboro, N. C., inquired for, and on being shown the room of Mrs. May Carter Lomax, entered, drew a pistol, and shot her dead, then turned the weapon upon himself and blew out his brains. Mrs. Lomax was in the hospital recovering from injuries received a few nights since while automobile riding with Prince and others. She was the wife of a southern railway baggagemaster, and conducted a millinery store in Goldsboro.

A huge sheet of paper bearing in stenciled, ungrammatical, disjointed sentences the charge that "this man ruined my little girlie" is the only clew the police hold to the murderer of George Dietz, 59 years old, a well-to-do ladies' tailor and apartment house owner of Chicago. Dietz was found dead in bed by his wife yesterday morning. His skull was crushed and his body beaten and bruised in a dozen places. A heavy blacksmith's hammer, the weapon used, wrapped in a big bandanna handerkerchief, lay beside the body. Partly covering his face was the large sheet of paper with the accusing inscription. In crude English the writer of the letter, apparently a foreigner, told in rough, graphic style a story of the betrayal of a young girl, "My little girlie," as he called her.

Angered by a school teacher's reference to him, as an anarchist, William D. Haywood, head of the Industrial Workers of the World, and leader of the 10,000 striking silk workers in Paterson, N. J., yesterday announced that he would call out the 35,000 children in the public schools. Haywood sets his school-children's strike for Thursday. Before that time he says that he will have a campaign among the children well under way, and that all of the schools will be visited. It was reported to Haywood that a child had asked a teacher what an anarchist was. It's such a person as Haywood and Elizabeth Gurley Flynn," the teacher is reported as having replied. Haywood says that such teaching in the public schools is taking an unfair advantage of childhood. He states that he and other Industrial Workers of the World members will teach the children themselves during the time that they are out of the schools.

Ernest Moschner, aged 35, murdered his four children and then killed himself by shooting at his home at Fitchburg, Mass. Continued ill health made the man temporarily insane, the police believe. Moschner's wife, upon returning from work, discovered the bodies of her children and husband with bullet holes in their heads. According to the police, the children were playing in the yard when their father called them upstairs to his bedroom. There, from the marks of the muddy feet, the officers believe he lined the children up in front of the bed and shot one at a time.

During his sojourn in England, Joseph Wilberforce Martin, the missing Memphis cotton broker, it is said, became acquainted with members of a gang of international sharpers and confidence tricksters, including a handsome woman. But although they are past masters in the art of kidnapping and terrorizing and have succeeded in many daring coups in England and the United States, it is not believed they would go so far as murder. All clews so far sent to Scotland Yard suggesting that Martin had been seen at different places have proved on investigation to be worthless.

MISS SHIVER'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Miss Elizabeth Shivers, who died Sunday at the Alexandria Hospital, took place this morning from St. Mary's Church. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Kelly.

ANOTHER CHARGE AGAINST WOMEN

Alleged to Have Burned The Residence of Arthur Phliip DuCross.

EXPLOSION IS HEARD.

Bank of England Surrounded by Police and Detectives—Infernal Machine is Examined.

St. Leonard's-on-Sea, England, April 15.—Suffragettes early today burned the handsome and costly seaside residence of Arthur Phillip Du Cros, M. P.

Militant literature scattered about the grounds gave the police positive assurances that the women or their hirelings were responsible. The house was destroyed. So far as could be learned the place was unoccupied.

Arthur Phillip Du Cros is the Unionist member from Hastings, an Irishman by birth, and has been in the House of Commons since 1908. His permanent home is Cannons Park, Edgware, and his residence at St. Leodnard's-On-Sea that the suffragettes burned today was his summer residence.

The house was the most pretentious in a neighborhood of summer colonists and the loss is estimated at $50,000 for the furnishings were costly and Du Cros was known to keep some art works there.

Several explosions were heard while the house was burning but the flames had made such progress befroe they were discovered that the way in which the fire was started was not learned.

The house had been unoccupied for a month.

London, April 15.—The great Bank of England today was surrounded by policemen, and detectives posed as employes in every part of the Institution, while the best men of Scotland Yard were leaving no stone unturned to run down the suffragettes responsible for the bomb found within the bank's railing in Bartholomew lane.

Meanwhile the infernal machine was being examined by explosive experts of the home office.

They said that the contrivance ,made from a milk can, contained a pound of blasting powder—and several hairpins.

These latter convinced the police that the suffragettes were responsible. The powder, said the experts, was hardly sufficient to have done much damage to the thick masonry of the bank's wall, but its explosion undoubtedly would have injured scores in crowded Bartholomew lane.

In the can with the powder—and the hairpins—was an electric battery with wires attached to a time fuse. When a policeman saw smoke issuing from the can, hung on the railing, he grasped it and hurried to a nearby street fountain, where he doused it into the water. When all smoke ceased to appear the policemen looked into the can. The mechanicism had stopped.

BANK DECORATIONS.

The decorators working on the interior of the Citizens' National Bank, will today finish their work in the presidents office, and according to the statement of Carroll Pierce, vice-president, all the decorative work on the interior ceiling and walls will be completed within two weks. J. E. Sperry, of Baltimore, the architect, under whose direction the decorative work is being done, will arrive in Alexandria today to decide upon the colors to be used in painting the walls.

VICIOUS DOG AT LARGE.

Another incident which serves to keep alive the fact that dangerous dogs are still running at large on the streets of Alexandria was witnessed this morning. At the corner of Cameron and Henry street a medium-size yellow dog, without a muzzle but having a leather collar around his neck, attempted to bite a lady who was standing at the corner waiting for a car. The dog was immediately driven off by employes of the Armour Company packing plant and was last seen going down Henry street.

WORK ON NEW ROAD.

Will Start Route Between Washington and Alexandria.

Though work is being pushed by the government authorities on the new road from Arlington across the lowlands of Alexander Island to the south end of the new highway bridge, it is stated that it will not be long before the new road is completed and ready for use. For several days past the road builders have been employed in making the fill and grading from the low ground at the old Alexander Island race track to the level of the approach to Highway Bridge, and this work is about done except for the surfacing.

The small trees and underbrush along the route of the road have been cleared and fills are being made through the swamp that runs between the river and the high lands on the Virginia shore.

It is said that when the new road is completed it will considerably shorten the distance between Arlington and the business section of Washington, as it will be more direct than by way of the Aqueduct bridge and through Georgetown.

The new boulevard is to be a portion of the avenue from Alexandria to Washington. At the rate the work is progressing the new road will be ready for use by the end of summer, and the time roadway between this city and Washington will be reduced thereby nearly three-quarters of a mile. The new road is being built by the government, an appropriation of $44,000 having been secured over a year ago by Congressman Charles C. Carlin for its construction.

The road runs in a straight line from the end of the bridge to Arlington,across the low ground on old Alexander Island where was former ly located the old race track, and then skirting the governmental experimental farm. There is a large amount of fiilling to be done and material is being hauled from Washington for this purpose.

At Johnson's corner, fronting the east wall of Arlington, the new road will join the macadam county road which passes through St. Asaph and Potomac, connecting with Washington street.

At the junction of the new road with the Highway Bridge two frame buildings have just been completed which will be occupied by Washington pawnbrokers.

DIES AS HE HOPED TO.

Tenderloin Man of Mystery Found Dead in Store Room.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 15.—True to his often-declared intention of drinking himself to death. "Professor," a tenderloin habitue, whose real name is unknown to the police, was found dead yesterday morning in the storeroom of a saloon at 4th and Vine streets with two partly filled demijohns of whiskey beside him. It is the belief of the police that he literally carried out his intention by consuming part of the contents of every bottle, demijohn and keg in the place.

For several months the man had been seen in the neighborhood, and his language indicated that he was well educated. This fact earned him him the nickname of "Professor," and on account of his reticence his real name or past was never found out.

Yesterday morning when John J. Goehler, one of the bartenders, went to the store room to sweep it out he found the man lying in a heap in the midst of the remains of his alcoholic orgy. Special Policemen Begier and Fagan, of the seventh district were notified and they had the body removed to the morgue, after it had been taken to Hahnemann Hospital.

To The Democratic Voters of Alexandria:

Your attention is called to the fact that your poll taxes must be paid on or before May 3rd, 1913, in order that you may vote in the general election on November 4th, and the primaries prior to that date.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN STRIKES

Wholesale Walkout in Belgium Assumes Great Proportions.

300,000 MEN HAVE QUIT.

Meeting Tonight in Paterson, N. J., to Formulate Strike of Eighteen Thousand School Children.

Brusels, April 15.—The suffrage strikers were joined today by several thousand more Socialist workingmen, and at the People's Palace, Leader Vandervelde declared that the movement is progresing to schedule. He said it was the plan of the Socialists to bring the strike on so gradually that Belgian industry would not be suddenly paralyzed.

That only between 200,000 and 300,-000 workingmen quit yesterday was regarded by the Clericals as a victory. They called the strike a "fiasco" but Camille Huysman, directing the strikers, today maintained that all who were expected to go out the first day did so, and predicted that by tomorrow the first day's figures would be doubled.

Paterson, N. J., April 15.—Incensed by the attitude of the public schol teachers toward the silk mill striker and its I. W. W. leaders, Miss Elizabeth Gurley Flynn and other organizers sent out a special call today for a meeting this evening of women and children to formulate plans for a strike of 18,000 school children.

According to the I. W. W. leaders, the teachers have been ridiculing the strike leaders to their pupils and defining them as anarchists and dangerous characters.

"No matter what these teachers think," said Miss Flynn today, "they have no right to prejudice the minds of the children, the majority of whom are children of the strikers, against the strike and its leadership. We propose to put it squarely up to the board of education to stop such unfair tactics on the part of the teachers or we will empty their schools of pupils as a protest, and give them the benefit of a little I. W. W. education.

The silk manufacturers refused again today to confer with the strikers, and there was nothing to indicate a settlement of the two-months old strike.

SEEKS DAMAGE FROM UNCLE.

Miss Bessie Strader is Suing for $5,000 for Slander.

Williamsburg, Va., April 15.— In the Circuit Court before Judge D. G. Tyler, presiding,the case of Miss Bessie Strader,who is suing Boyd Henry for slander, is on trial. Miss Strader,who is young and quite pretty, is askin $5,000 damages.The plaintiff's testimony was heard yesterday, and some of it was of very spicy nature. The court room was crowded all day.

Immediately after the alleged slander was uttered Miss Strader horsewhipped Henry, the whole affair creating a great sensation in the otherwise quiet hamlet. Henry's wife is Miss Strader's aunt.

THE DOG CRUSADE.

Straps or Halters Which do Not Prevent Animals From Biting Will Not do.

In addition to the crusade against dogs without muzzles running at large in the streets, the police have been instructed to see that the dogs are properly muzzled. Justice Caton stated in court this morning that halters and straps which do not prevent the dog from biting will not be considered as suitable muzzles and owners using them will be subject to fine as if their dogs were unmuzzled. Thirteen dog owners were brought into court this morning charged with violation of the ordinance. Justice Caton imposed fines of $5 each on Louis Baltimore, James Lightfoot, H. V. Kelly, Calvin Neal, O. W. Peverill and Ellen Cole. Five cases were dismssed with warning and two were continued.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Don't forget to see Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party tonight at 8 o'clock at the Young People's Building, given by the West End High School. Admission, adults, 25c, children, 15c.

At a meeting of Alexandria Lodge of Elks which was held last night, Exalted Ruler, James W. Bales, announced the following appointments of officers of the lodge: A. A. Paul, esquire, Rev. Edgar Carpenter, chaplain and Joseph Ewald, inner guard.

A meeting of the board of the Old People's Home will be held tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock at Lee Camp Hall. Business of vital importance will be considered.

Miss Ruth Robey, daughter of Mr. James Robey, and Mr. Norris Roland, were married last night at the rectory of St. Mary's Church, by Rev. L. F. Kelly.

Mrs. Mary G. Powell has purchased two large magnolia trees which she has donated to Christ Church for planting in the church yard on the Washington street side.

NEW FIRE HORSE.

Dr. James J. Garvey, deputy health officer, has secured a fine looking horse from Washington which today was given a tryout by the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Company. If the animal comes up to the requirements of the fire department it will be purchased by the city.

POTOMAC SAND DIGGERS.

Dredging Machines, Lighters And Tugs Are Busy Again.

Practically the entire fleet of tugs, dredging machines and lighters used by sand and gravel digging companies in taking the material from the beds in theriver are now in service on the river, and daily large quantities of building sand, gravel and stone are brought to Alexandria and Washington. Dredge No. 5, belonging to the Columbia Granite and Dredging Company, which was laid up in the Eastern branch to be rebuilt, has returned to service, and was recently taken to Notley Hall to work on the sand deposits there. Sand and gravel is found at many places along the river. For many years it was obtained in the Georgetown channel near where the Highway bridge now crosses, but of recent years it has been obtained mainly from Goose Egg Island, opposite Alexandria, at Notley Hall, Piscataway creek, Pomonkey creek and on Greenway flats. Employed in the business are five dredges, five or six tugs and a large number of lighters, and several hundred persons obtain a livelihood from it.

DEATH OF MRS. BURROUGHS.

Mrs. Elizabeth G. Burroughs, widow of J. H. Burroughs, died at Congress Heights, D. C., yesterday. The deceased was 86 years old. The family for many years resided at the southwest corner of Wolfe and Lee streets. Mrs. Burrough's husband died in 1887.

RETAIL MERCHANTS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants Association, Inc., will be held tonight. As this is the first meeting since the election of a new secretary, and many questions of importance will come up, a large attendance is expected. President Harry Hammond will announce his committees and plans for the coming year.

OLD TOMBSTONE.

In the 500 block of north St. Asaph street, lying on a vacant lot on which formerly stood a frame structure, occupied by colored people, there lies the fragments of an old tombstone of red rock, which from the inscription, deeply cut into its surface, seems to have been in use two years before the American Revolution. The date on the stone plainly states that the person in whose memory it was erected died in 1774, aged 26 years. Some associations would undoubtedly consider this old tombstone of great historical value.

REPORTS FROM THE POPE CONFLICTING

PESSIMISM IN PARIS.

Bronchial Trouble Receding Perceptibly and Kidneys Found to be Working Normally.

Rome, April 15.—Pope Pius continues to improve. His condition greatly encourages the physicians, although it is feared the unfavorable weather may bring on another collapse. The Pope has no fever and his temperature is 98.1, his cough is decreasing and general conditions are good.

Paris, April 15.——In the face of the papal physicians' optimistic bulletin, the Vatican correspondent of the Paris Excelsior at noon told by long distance telephone tha tthe Pope's end was believed to be near.

Rome, April 15.—Though the Pope has spent a tranquil night, he was very weak, and Dr. Andera Amici stayed in the ante-room, within instant call. It was the coldest April night that Rome has had for many years, and rain fell almost constantly. It was feared that the weather might depress the pontiff and cause coughing, that might produce a collapse.

But his holiness slept well and was awake only a few times during the night. His pulse remained almost normal and his temperature did not go above 99.

When Prof. Marchiafava and Dr. Amici made a thorough examination early today they found that the bronchial trouble was receding perceptibly, and said there was no likelihood that it would now invade the lungs. The Pope breathed much easier than yesterday, and his kidneys were found to be almost normal.

The increased fever and slight sinking period that alarmed doctors and attendants late yesteray ended in the Pope's falling into a deep sleep. When he awoke in the early night he was greatly refreshed and partook of considerable nourishment in the form of milk and gelatine.

The Pontiff's nephew, a priest of Venice, was allowed to visit the sick room for a few minutes and greatly cheered his uncle. It was said that the young han had a perceptibly brightening effect on the little apartment a squsre away where the sorrowing sisters of the Pope and a niece worked far into the night, finishing the lace funeral vestment they are making for their brother.

Election Tomorrow.

Washington, April 15.—With followers of Mrs. John Miller Horton, Mrs. William Cummings Story and Mrs. Charles B. Bryan, the three leading candidates for president general of the D. A. R., hard at work all the morning, predictions were made that there probably will be no election on the first ballot, which will be taken tomorrow morning.

Underwood Recovered.

Representative Underwood was today sufficiently recovered from his illness to resume charge of the bill in the caucus, although his friends urged him to return home until completely well. He was so anxious to guide the administration measure through the caucus, however, and to hasten its consideration as much as possible that he remained on the floor in spite of illness.

Mrs. Theodore Cook who has been quite sick at her home on Queen street, is much better.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Purposed New High School Discussed at Meeting of the Organization Last Night

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held last night was the largest and most enthusiastic meeting held for some time past. Considerable business was transacted during the evening, the most important matter brought before the meeting being the new High School project, which was discussed at length and a plan of action decided upon.

A special committee of fifteen was appointed by Carroll Pierce, president of the chamber, to co-operate with committees that have been appointed from various organizations to be present at a hearing to be held before the committee from the City Council on the night of Thursday, April 17th. The committee is as follows:

George D. Hopkins, of Old Dominion Glass Company, Chairman.
William Jorg, of Corby Bakery.
T. M. Ervin, of F. S. Harper, Inc.
E. S. Leadbeater, of E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Inc.
John . May, of W. H. May & Son.
W. W. Ballenger, of Robert Portner Brewing Company.

C. S. T. Burke, of Burke & Herbert.
R. L. Payne, of Alexandria Fertilizer Company.
Windsor Demaine, of Wm. Demaine & Son.
Jas. M. Duncan of Chatam Stables.

With a view toward securing a more uniform system of assessment for State taxes, it was decided to appoint a special committee of three to co-operate with the Chamber of Commerce in Richmond and other organizations of business men throughout the State in the endeavor to secure such legislation as will exchange existing conditions. There was seventy-one counties of Virginia that last year cost the State $600,000 more in expenses than those counties paid in taxes, thus causing the entire burden of the expense of the State government to fall upon the twenty-nine counties and cities, mostly upon the cities. This committee will be appointed at an early date.

President Pierce intends to do all in his power to secure the co-operation of the members of the Virginia State Bankers' Association in the work of securing a more uniform system of state assessment for taxes.

Mr. C. S. T. Burke and Mr. A. D. Brockett, who are directors of the Richmond-Washington Division of the Quebec-Miami Highway Association, were appointed representatives from this chamber to attend a meeting of that organization in Richmond April 17th, and 18th. They were also appointed delegates from this organization to attend a conference for education in the south, to be held in Richmond on the same dates.

The reports made to the members showed that the Chamber of Commerce was in a most prosperous condition. Various matters of interest were also discussed at the meeting.

A MIDNIGHT WEDDING.

Washington Couple Become Man and Wife Shortly Before Town Clock Strikes Twelve.

In order to comply with the provisions of a will of a relative which left a considerable legacy to one of the contracting parties, a wedding was consumated shortly before midnight last night at the residence of Nevell S. Greenaway, clerk of courts, of Alexandria, between S Joseph Clark, contractor of Washington, and Miss Meryle C. Fagley, of Altoona, Pa. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. R. Strausburg, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church.

Mr. Greenaway was awakened at 11:30 last night by the couple, who told him of the necessity of their marriage previous to April 15th in order that they might obtain a legacy. According to their story, the wedding had been delayed by the illness of Miss Fagley and when she arrived in Washington last night, ready for the ceremony, it was too late to obtain a license in that city. As there remained only a few minutes before midnight, Mr. Greenaway, who is one of the most accommodating men in the world, especially when asked to help out Cupid in some of his pranks, jumped into the automobile which had brought the man and woman to Alexandria and a quick run was made to the courthouse where the necessary license was hurriedly filled out. In the meanwhile the services of Mr. Strausburg had been called into requisition and a few minutes before 12 o'clock the wedding was ready to proceed. The ceremony was completed just as the clock on the City Hall tower tolled the midnight hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark returned to Washington by automobile at the conclusion of the ceremony.

UNSEASONABLE WEATHER.

Continued Rains Cause Current And Interferes With Fishing.

The rainy and gloomy weather of the past week has, as might have been expected, brought high tides in the Potomac and a decided "set down" in the river. The current is interfering seriously with fishing operations, both seine haulers and gillers experiencing difficulty from drift wood and other debris which is brought down the river from the upper country.

The gillers of this city are catching a few shad, but until present conditions change they do not expect to reap much fruits from their toil.

Prices of shad continue firm with an advancing tendency. So far nothing in the finny tribe has been landed at Fishtown, and from present indications that locality will show but little animation during the season.

The river steamers continue to bring "struck" herring to this port in barrels. They are sprinkled with enough salt to keep them for a few days and packed in barrels and sent by agents direct to consumers.

INJUNCTION AWARDED.

In the Corporation Court today an injunction was awarded in the case of M. Blanch Rotchford et al. vs. W. M. Priest and E. C. Dunn, city engineer, restraining the latter from issuing a permit to Priest to erect a chicken house in the rear of his store.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this or we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

CHANNEL TO OCCOQUAN.

Movement to Deepen Channel to Town—Steamers May go on Route.

Under a call issued by Col. Langfitt, engineer officer in charge of the channels of the Potomac river and its tributaries, a meeting of those interested in the improvement of Occoquan Creek will be held in the town of Ocoquan, Apri 25. In the rivers and harbors bill, approved March 4, last, provision was made for a preliminary examination of the creek, and for a survey, if found advisable. The engineer's department wishes to gather data regarding the amount of commerce now coming out of the creek, and the amount that would be developed were the creek deepened.

It is also desires dto obtain the ideas of those acquainted with local conditions as to the depth of water wanted in the chanel ror its development. The District of Columbia is interested in this matter, as the District workhouse is located on the creek it is proposed to improve and shipments to and from the institution can be made much cheaper by water than by rail .

There is supposed to be a channel seven feet deep from the river to the town of Ocoquan, but it has filled since it was dredged and tugboatmen say there are spots in it where less than six feet of water exists on low tides. It is claimed that where the Ocoquan cnannel deepend and widened it would be but a question of a short time before freight and passenger steamers would be in service between Washington, Alexandria and Occoquan.

MONTICELLO GRAVEYARD.

Association Formed By Descendants of Jefferson.

Charlottesville, Va., April 15.—The Monticello Graveyard Association was formed here yesterday by descendants of Thomas Jefferson, the following officers were chosen: President, Col. Jefferson Randolph Kean, of Washington; vice-president and compiler of records, Miss Cornelia Jefferson Taylor, of Albemarle; secretary and treasurer, Virginia Randolph Shackelford, of Orange, Va.; historian,Miss Jane Randolph Harrison Randall, of Baltimore.

Colonel Kean, a surgeon of the U. S. Army, and a great grandson of President Jefferson, deploring the apparent neglect of this sacred spot by the general family, conceived the idea of organizing such an association for its preservatoin and protection. Liberal subscriptions came in from the many descendants of Colonel Thomas Jefferson Randolph, of Edgehill, to whom the graveyard was deeded and whose descendants alone hold it in property right and from the "Jefferson Collateral". The association starts off with a membership of 52.

JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY.

Celebration at the University of Virginia.

Charlottesville, Va., April 15—The University of Virginia yesterday celebrated the 117th anniversary of the birth of its founder, Thomas Jefferson. Talcott Williams, of Columbia University School of Journalism, made an address. Messages of greeting from alumni chapters throughout the counry were read.

Dr. Williams declared President Wilson had profited by the newspaper, for which Jefferson laid the foundation for national liberty, beyond any other man in recent history. By the advance in journalism, said Dr. Williams, President Wilson, through all his campaign had the country as an audience. The Jefferson he said, no such fair fortune came.

The principle that publicity is the best protection of liberty, which Jefferson urged, is universally accepted, Dr. Williams said, and partisanship never has less controlled the newspaper than at present.

THREE-FOOT SNOW IN APRIL.

Ex-Sheriff Rosser Tells of Bitter Experience He Had in 1889.

Luray, Va., April 15.—Ex-Sheriff W. M. Rosser says that on Saturday, April 6, 1889, 24 years ago last Sunday, he and the late Isaah Printz, started in a conveyance over the ridge from Marksville, in Page, to Criglersville, Madison county, and nearly lost their lives in a three-foot snow on the Blue Ridge. This depth of snow fell during the day and seemed to come down almost in a mass. At first it was warm and damp, which made the snow very heavy. The horse was barely able to move, stopping every few steps. The travelers were soon wet with perspiration. Then it became bitterly cold and they nearly froze. After a long weary day of privation and suffering they succeded in climbing the mountain,and reaching John Cave's home, just over the summit. On the following day they were able to start out again, but so clogged were the roads that their exhausted horse made only nine miles in nine hours. At the same time there was only eleven inches of snow in the Page Valley and no snow at all down in the Madison flat lands.

GAVE LIFE FOR HIS BRIDE.

Samuel Hope Drowned While Trying Cross James River.

Roanoke, Va., April 15.—While crossing the James river Sunday afternoon in a rowboat at Buchanan, Samuel Hope, 33 years old, was drowned when the boat capsized, while his 15-year-old wife a bride of one month, and brother, Raymond Booze, were rescued. Mr. Hope, his wife and the boy left the south side of the river about 3 o'clock. He was rowing the boat and was attempting to cross near the rope which was stretched from one side of the river to the other, following the washing away o fthe bridge by the recent flood. The boat became entangled in the rope and the swift current upset the boat. Mr. Hope grabbed for the rope, but his wife missed it.

Seeing that Mrs. Hope was being carried down by the rushing water, Mr. Hope swam to her rescue. He held to her for five minutes, but became exhausted. By this time Ryland Jeter, a negro, who had seen the accident in midstream, was in his boat and on his way to the rescue. He succeeded in reaching Mrs. Hope in time to save her, but Mr. Hope had been carried out of sight. Raymond Booze clung to the boat and he, too, was rescued by the negro.

DIES IN THE WOODS.

Believed to Have Committed Suicide by Drinking Poison.

Richmond, Va., April 15.— With an empty bottle which is believed to have contained poison, lying by his side, F. W. Wougaman, forty-nine years old, a well known farmer of Chesterfield county was found dead Sunday afternoon in the woods near his home in Harnishe's estate

Having beeen missing from his home since Saturday his family and the hands employed on the farm began search for him. When found in the woods he had been dead apparently several hours. Although the bottle found near him was not labeled it is believed that it had contained poison which was the means of the man's death.

Mr. Wougaman was formerly of Scottsdale, Pa., and has only been a resident of the county for a short while.

Miss Marie Fleet who has been indisposed for the past two months, is much better and is able to be up.

ASSAULTS HIS RESCUER.

Stranger Uses Norfolk and Western Rail For Pillow.

Petersburg, Va., April 15.—For waking a strange and well dressed man who was found using a rail of the main line of the Norfolk and Western Railway at Petersburg as a pillow and probably saving his life, Fireman Wells, of the yard engine crew, received his thanks in the form of a whack over the cranium with a quart whisky flask in the hands of the reckless sleeper on Sunday morning.

The shifting engine had just pulled a string of cars into a siding in the Petersburg yards and stopped for uncoupling. Fireman Wells saw the prostrate form of a man lying across the main line nearby and, investigating found the stranger to be evidently in a drunken sleep.

Wells shook the form into something resembling consciousness and the man gained his feet. The stranger had no sooner done so, however, than he drew a flask of liquor from his pocket and struck the man who was trying to rescue him from danger. The blow staggered the fireman, but retaliation in the form of a fistic blow to the cheek of the ungrateful one followed immediately and he rolled to the track again, the quart flask breaking in the fall, soaking the ground with liquor.

The fireman pulled the man from the track and about two hours later, meeting him at the passenger station, the stranger thanked him heartily for saving his life and apologized profusely for his unappreciative actions of a short time previous.

EDUCATION IN THE SOUTH.

Great Conference Begins Today in Richmond.

Richmond, Va., April 15.—Two members of President Wilson's Cabinet Secretaries Houston and Daniels, and Walter H. Page, the new ambassador to Great Britain, are among the 2,000 friends of education, who have signified their intention of attending the eleventh conference for education in the South, which begins here today Hundreds of delegates arrived here today. Owing to the illness of President Robert C. Ogden, at New York Mr. Page is expected to preside.

Preliminary meetings of various commissions attending the conference got under way today. The commission on accredited schools and the conference of state supervisors of rural schools were among the first to hold sessions. The first open meeting of the general conference will be held tomorrow night, when Lawrence Fraser Abbott, of New York, will address the Southern Association of College Women. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday will be taken up with separate conferences of editors farmers, preachers, teachers, women writers and other organizations in the general conference.

Double Trains Crash.

Staunton, Va., April 15. — Two double-headed freight trains on the Norfolk and Western collided head-on just south of Basic City yesterday morning, wrecking the four engines and smashing up several cars of merchandise. Six persons were slightly hurt, all members of the train crews.

YOU ARE LOOKING OLDER THAN WHEN I SAW YOU LAST
Have You Ever Had This Said of You Because of Grey Hairs
It is most embarassing to have a friend remark that you are "looking older". Grey hairs are not becoming, people may tell you so, but they don't mean it.
There is one quick, sure, easy way of getting rid of grey or faded hair—simply use Hay's Hair Health.
Benefit by the experience of thousands of others, who are using Hay's Hair Health. It brings back the fine, glossy, brilliant color of your hair—restores the grey hairs to their natural color immediately, and keeps the scalp free from dandruff.
People voluntarily recommend Hay's Hair Health. It is not unusual for them to say: "I want to tell others about it. It's perfectly splendid." Try it yourself, today. You'll be surprised how quickly the grey hairs disappear; how beautifully dark and glossy your hair will remain after using it. Druggists sell more Hay's Hair Health than all others combined because their customers prefer it and they know that it can be guaranteed satisfactory.

A JUDICIAL MISFIT WRITES TO MAYOR GAYNOR.

Henry Niell was recently elected a justice of the peace of Oak Park, Illinois. He seems to be of a sensitive mould, so much so that he flinches at the idea of enforcing laws he finds upon the statute book, and criticises those providing penalties for certain misdemeanors. Neill's conscience has become so tender that he has sent a letter to Mayor Gaynor of New York, asking his advice. Among other questions put to the Mayor is "What Would Jesus Do?" Neill stated to Gaynor that he is a firm believer in sayings of Christ and desires to administer the office of justice of the peace as the Great Teacher would.

Mayor Gaynor, in his reply to his correspondent, among other things, says:

You tell me you have been elected a justice of the peace and desire to administer your office the same as Jesus would do if He were there instead of you. You ask for my advice. You say you believe the present system of fines for minor offenses is wrong in principle, for the reason that it 'tends to increase crime and promotes disrespect to" law.' You ask if Jesus would assess such fines and collect such fees if he were in your place. You seem to be a man who thinks himself wiser than the law and above the law. That kind of a man is the most dangerous man that can be put into office, especially in a free country. The law is made by the representatives whom we elect to the legislature. You are elected a justice of the peace to accept the laws thus made and carry them out. If you do not wish to do that you ought to resign. You think you are wiser and better than the law,

"What would Jesus Do?" you ask me. If He accepted the office He would also accept the law as it is and administer it faithfuliy. He would not take the law into His own hands. He would not assume to do as He liked. He would say 'I do not think this law is wise, but the legislature made it and I have to abide by it, and probably they are wiser about it than I am.' And He would go on and administer the law as He found it. Indeed, that is the way He acted when He was on earth. He abided by the law. He constantly quoted the law. Where He did not like the law he advocated a change for something better. He attended the synagogue and taught the law there. He preached in the open fields and taught the law there. It was the abuse and misuse of the law which He denounced. If you do not like the laws as they are in your locality, you ought to get yourself elected to the legislature and then work hard to change them But as a judge you must abide by the law. Are you unconscious of the fact that by your oath of office you have sworn to do so? Suppose every judge in this country, from the highest to the lowest, took it into his head to ignore the law and decide cases to suit himself.What a woeful condition that would very soon put us all in And yet you, a little justice of the peace out in Oak Park, Ill., want to act in that way."

WANTED: A DEFINITE SCHOOL PROPOSITION.

The Chamber of Commerce at its meeting last night appointed a committee of 15 to join with the committee already named by several labor and fraternal organizations to appear before the committees on finance and general laws of the City Council tomorrow night and urge the erection of a new high school.

While the action of the chamber will receive the support of all those who favor the erection of a new school and the Gazette is among this number, time will probably be lost (as it was on a previous occasion) unless a definite proposition is made to the city's committees. Every one who is at all familiar with the school situation knows that a new high school is needed and that if not ready by next year the whole system will be crippled. Continual harping on this subject, however, is not going to build the schoolhouse, but some practical suggestion will help the committee in arriving at a decision. Everybody wants the school house, but the question of securing money is another proposition. The annual deficit grows larger each year under the constantly increasing appropriations for new street work, and no further sums can be taken from the current receipts.

The suggestion is for the committee to present some plan to the finance committee which they can adopt, such for instance as a bond issue. Let the committees secure a petition signed by a majority of the property owners asking for a bond issue, the proceeds to be used for the erection of a new high school building, and providing that the tax rate this year be raised so as to provide the interest and a sinking fund.

This will put the issue squarely up to the Council and will no doubt bring immediate results.

DOES HEARST OWN THE POST?

The recent eulogistic editorial in the Washington Post on William R. Hearst, of New York, followed by the great publicity given by the Post to Mr. Hearst's attack on President Wilson and his tariff policies gives rise to the suggestion that Mr. Hearst is at last in control of the Washington Post. For several years he has been attempting to buy a newspaper in Washington and last summer a rumor that he had secured the Post was emphatically denied by the McLeans. The present unusual activity of the Post in exploting Mr. Heart can only be explained by the fact that the New York publisher has secured a large, if not controlling, interest in the Washington paper.

ANNIVERSARY OF LINCOLN'S DEATH.

Today forty-eight years ago the widow and fatherless children of Abraham Lincoln were sobbing over his lifeless body, he having been shot in a theatre the previous night by an actor named John Wilkes Booth, and the great mass of the American nation were mingling their tears with those of the sorrowing household.

The circumstances in connection with this tragedy have often been told and long since have formed thrilling chapters in histories of the United States.

The thunder clap, coming as it did, out of a clearing sky, which had been obscured for four long years, startled the land as it never had been before.

A sigh of relief was going up from people in both sections of the country, as the cruel war was over at last. The northern soldier was rejoicing that he would soon lay aside his accoutrements of war and return to the plow, while the southerner, fighting against terrible odds,was experiening a natural relief that his privations and hardships were at an end and he, too, would soon be treading the paths of peace far from the field of carnage.

The slayer of Lincoln was denounced in both sections. He was not a representative of the Southern soldier, who while ready to fight to death on the field of battle for the principles he held dear was not an assassin in any sense. The cruel act of shooting a defenseless man in the presence of his wife in a public place never appealed to any brave man.

The murder of Lincoln retarded reconstruction for a while, but time which soothes savage breasts and blunts the keen edge of all our woes, has long since performed its peaceful mission.

A LITTLE BIRD TOLD IT TO ME.

I learn lots of news from the people I meet,
From gosip I ne'er tired to flee
I'm asked how I know so much stuff to repeat
A little bird told it to me.

Now Colonel Jim Briggs had a fuss with his wife,
From trouble they never are free
Their home is a nightmare of quarreling strife,
A little bird told it to me.

Sam Bodkin's chuaffeur and his daughter May
To elope and be married agree,
They don't care a straw for what people will say,
A little bird told it to me.

Lawyer Bob Smith is a crook and a thief
Who will charge an exorbitant fee,
That he'll swindle his clients is my firm belief,
A little bird told it to me.

Old Man Tom Dodson caught his daughter Nell
A-sitting on Sam Fowler's knee
And just what he said it would not do to tell,
A little bird told it to me.

Old Simon Tanner got full Wednesday night,
He was drunk as a man could wel be,
When at last he got home he was surely a sight,
A little bird told it to me.

I love to talk gossip, I love to tell tales,
That I know the town's news you can see,
My steady informant of news never fails,
A litle bird told it to me.

So the county antes up a candidate for the House of Delegates, All right, county, we call you.

After all this dry spell it looks this morning like we might be go-going to have a little bit of weather. Well, it makes an elegant season for the ducks.

Why, oh why, don't they get something new. They've been hammering at the old stuff so long that they'll begin to believe it themselves after while.

Of all sad words of tongue or pen,
The saddest are those, he's of again.
The water-wagon's way is tough,
It's hard to stay on when the road is rough.

THREW ACID ON WOMEN.

Attempt to Disfigure Fair Young Divorcee.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 15.—Three hours after she had been warned by a fortune teller that an attempt would soon be made to disfigure her Miss Yetta Snyder ,21 years old, a beautiful young woman, was awakened in the bed room of her home at 2541 South Ninth street, early yesterday morning, by intense burning pains on her face, arms and body. Writhing from pain, the suffering woman sprang from her bed, and, groping her way into a room occupied by her married sister, cried out that she was burning to death.

A light was hastily procured, revealing that the young woman had been drenched with a powerful acid. Unable to endure the terrible pains Miss Snyder swooned and a physician was summoned.

That a quantity of the acid did not reach the victim's eyes and mouth is due to the fact that she was lying face downward when the fiery fluid was thrown by her mysterious enemy. She received a large portion of the acid on the side of her face arms and body. If she it not marked for life it will be due to the thoughtfulness of members of the family, who applied home remedies while awaiting the arrival of a physician.

A year ago Miss Snyder was married to Morris Puer, she told the police, but a separation was affected several weeks ago, and since then she resumed her maiden name. Puer, she said, visited the house on Thursday night. They separated the best of friends, she told the police.

TWO KILLED AT CROSSING.

Driver's Deafness Cost Own and Companion's Life.

Allentown, Pa., April 15. — The electric grade crossing's death toll was increased by two Saturday evening when a team occupied by George Fritz, farmer, aged 54, and Charles B. Morey, carriage maker, aged 51. was struck by a local on the Philadelphia divisnon of the Lehigh Valley Transit Company at the Northern borough line of Coopersburg Fritz had bought a farm from Morey's sister and they were bound for a conveyancer to draw the deed. The trolley company was running double-headers and the first car had passed when Fritz, who was very deaf,drove on the crossing directly in front of the car following, whose motorman was furiously blowing his siren.

The car wasn't speeding and the horse and buggy were uninjured, but in being thrown the men landed on their heads and each suffered a fractured skull, dying at the Allentown hospital during the night. Fritz leaves wife, mothers and sisters and Morey, wife, son and daughter.

At another grade crossing, only a mile away, the Saturday night previous an express train struck the team of Jacob Ziegler, whose wife was killed while he is still in serious condition.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A milk can filled with gunpowder and connected with an electric fuse was found yesterday afternoon inside the railing surounding the bank of England in London. It was removed by the police. The police have been able to discover no clue as to who placed the bomb where it was found. The bomb contained ordinary gunpowder. Smoke was issuing from the can when the police found it. When the can was examined a clock work arrangement was found inside. The attempt on the bank is attributed to the militant suffragettes in some quarters.

Before killing himself with gas at his home in St. Louis early yesterday George Webester Rickard, 18 years old a student, entertained three boys at a dinner and danced in a Buster Brown suit he had worn in amateur theatricals. After bidding his guests good night Rickard dragged a phonograph into the kitchen,turned on the gas in the stove and lay down to die.' The record of 'Jesu Lover of My Soul," was found on the phonograph. His mother's Bible lay on the floor.

There are sections of our country that have been devastated and entirely ruined by the floods and high waters. Arrangements are now being made to overcome this. In other words, the stable will be locked, as the horse is gone. Be like the wise Virgins, prepare for the visit. Then whether it rains, sleets or snows, you have yours. John A. Marshall and Bro. is prepared to meet your wants with a full line of spring and summer wear for babies, children, misses and grown-up ladies, and men.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF RESIDUE.

Trustee's sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House' tract of land located in Mt. Vernon Magisterial District, Fairfax County, Va., containing approximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback, deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohrer, at its March term, 1913, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Royal Street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria, Virginia, at the above described property.

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximateely twenty-seven hundred (2,700)acres,of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States Government for a school of Equitation or Horsemanship. The balance between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber. It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by the old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a club house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situated on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

Terms of Sale:—One-third cash and residue in 3 equal annual payments at one, two and three years from the date of the confirmation of the sale with interest from the said date of the confirmation of sale at the rate of six per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually, with right to anticipate the time of paying the deferred payments, secured by retention of title till paid.

SENT TO HER HOME.

Following Abandonment, Small Girl Is Forwarded to New Jersey.

Lucy Nelson, the seven-year-old girl, whose grandfather left her at a lunchroom in Washington last week, and later forgot to return to her, has arrived at the home of her parents at Union Hill, N. J.

Lucy's parents recently moved from Warrenton, Va., to Union Hill, leaving her at Warrenton until they had a home established. They sent for her last week. Her grandfather brought her to Washington, and was to have placed her on a train for New York city, whence she was to go to her new home.

When the grandfather failed to return to her Thursday night the child was taken to the house of detention and the police communicated with her parents. She has a tag on her dress, showing her destination and the police were thus enabled to locate the parents. They sent money for a ticket, and she was started for her new home.

VISION OF DEAD SISTER.

Pope Returns in Dream to His Beloved Venice.

The Pope last night rallied in a wonderful manner from the serious attack from which he suffered Sunday. He appeared to be at the point of death that night.

Dr. Amici paid a visit to the sickroom shortly before midnight. Although the Pope's temperature had increased slightly, he found the general condition satisfactory. He administered a heart stimulant, and shortly afterward the Pope went to sleep.

After his afternoon sleep it was observed that the pontiff looked very bright and happy. Although he was advised not to talk, he insisted on explaining how he had just awakened from a most wonderful dream.

He seemed, he said, to have returned to his beloved Venice; that he was in his patriarchal gondola on the Grand Canal.

Everything was blazing with sunlight, when suddenly above St. Mark's the sky opened and he saw a vision of his dead sister, Rosa, who, descending toward him, took his hand, saying:

"The moment has not yet come for you to join me. Your work is not yet finished."

The martin in his yearly round is with us, but the Blue Bird is held back a little on account of bad weather. Many of like the latter harbinger of Spring. They hate to forego pleasure and stay indoors simply because they put off getting needed footwear until it was too late. Go to Marshall's today and get it.

ROME IN FERVOR OF PIETY.

Worshippers From All Over Globe at Constantinian Jubilee.

Rome, April 15.—The thought that Rome may be witnessing the final days of Pope Pius X imbues all church ceremonials with even greater interest than they customarily command at this season, when the city is at its best, sheltering pilgrims and sightseers from the entire globe.

Many thousands of such Sunday morning thronged the church of St. John Lateran for the final ceremony celebrating the Constantinian jubilee. Cardinal Vinci Vanutelli, who represented the vatican at the Eucharistic congresses in London and Montreal, had been specially delegated by the Pope to celebrate pontifical mass. All the cardinals in Rome, numbering 20, and other dignitaries assisted. There was a notable asemblage of patriarchs and archbishops, officials of the Vatican staff, heads of religious orders and colleges in ecclesiastical robes and foreign diplomats to the Papal court in uniforms. The ceremony was heightened by music by the famous Sistine choir.

The great pillars of St. John were hung with draperies of crimson and gold, and clusters of candles numbering thousands glittered in the crystal chandeliers. The service occupied two hours. The procession of cardinals, gorgeously robed, and lesser members of the heirarchy could be seen only in Rome.

The vast congregation included varying elements striking in their contrast. The most aristocratic Italian nobility brushed against bronzed and colorless peasants and old women with handkerchiefs around their heads. American tourists and other sight-seers with parish priests from many countries, making the pilgrimage of their lifetime, monks and friars from Spain Italy and the Philippines, some in black and others in brown robes, their waists bound with rope and with sandaled feet.

Only a few hundred nearest the altar were able to see and follow the service. Thousands knelt throughout the vast space; others eddied about, whispering in many tongues.

In accordance with the will of Pope Leo XIII, his tomb was prepared in St. John Lateran by the cardinals. The created body still remains, however, in the temporary vault in St. Peter's for fear of a repetition of the unseemly riots by anti-clericals on the occasion of the transportation of the body of Pius IX to its last resting place.

All progressive countries prepare for war in time of peace. All progressive people prepare for storm in time of calm. When the rainy and chilly spell came was your footwear all that you wanted it to be? Do not be caught again; go to Marshall's and prepare yourself.

THE LATE J. P. MORGAN.

Funeral Services of Financier in New York Yesterday.

Funeral services for J. Pierpont Morgan were held at 10 o'clock yesterday morning in St. George's Protestant Episcopal Church, New York, where he had worshipped for half a century.

A vested choir of 250 voices preceded the funeral party into St. George's. Behind the choir came the clergy, then the pallbearers, the coffin and the family. Fifteen hundred persons, one of the most notable gatherings New York has seen for many years, were crowded into the church. Admission was by card only.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Karl Relland, rector of St. George's; the Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, bishop of Massachusetts; the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, bishop of Connecticut, and the Rt. Rev. David H. Greer, bishop of New York.

The body was buried yesterday on the crest of Cedar Hill cemetery, at Hartford, Connecticut, the sixth of the house of Morgan to find resting place there.

His grave is to the west of the great monument of red granite that marks the family plot. To the east lie his father, Junius Spencer Morgan; his mother, and a brother, who died in boyhood. To the north are the graves of his grandparents, Joseph and Sarah. Like the others, the grave will be marked by a small brown headstone, inscribed," John Pierpont Morgan, 1836-1913."

In lieu of the headstone there were towered last night a monument of flowers, masses of roses, lilies, orchids, ferns, and cedar boughs, heaped in a huge pyramid over the grave.

Father E. T. Monteleone and his parishoners of Our Lady of Mount Carmelas Roman Catholic church of Jersey City are having a huge wax candle moulded, and will send it to Rome to be burned on feast days in memory of J. Pierpont Morgan.

The candle will be 16 feet in height with a base 18 inches wide, tapering to six inches. Father Monteleone says that if the candle was lighted one day each year it would last for 300 years.

DROPS ROAD SUIT.

Supreme Court Has no Jurisdiction Over State's Decision.

For want of jurisdiction, the appeal of the Consolidated Turnpike Company and others from the decision of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals in favor of the Norfolk and Ocean View Railway Company was discontinued yesterday by the Supreme Court.

The Consolidated Turnpike Company constructed a turnpike from Norfolk, Va., to Ocean View and mortgaged it in 1902. The Bay Shore Terminal Company obtained a deed to a right of way along the turnpike for an electric line. In 1903 the Bay Shore Company became insolvent and receivers were appointed by the Federal court. The receivers were ordered by the court to condemn the right of way. Then began condemnation proceedings in 1906 in the State courts of Virginia. The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia held that measure of damages was the value of the property of the Bay Shore Company at the time the deed was given to it in 1902, which was assessed by commissioners at $6,200.

The case was brought to the Supreme Court on the ground that the measure of damages should have been the value at the time the condemnation suit was begun, namely $57,200, as found by the commissioners. In the interim improvements had been made on the land.

SAFETY IN WOMEN'S AIM.

Wild Riot Among Negress Ends Without a Casualty.

Wilmington, Del., April 15.—Armed with bricks, clubs and knives of every description a small sized mob of negro women indulged in a riot in Lafayette street, otherwise known as "Blodfield," and that some of them were not killed or seriously injured is regarded as almost miraculous. When the police reached the scene they found the grown strewn with weapons that had been used and the missiles that had been thrown.

Rebecac Moore and her two daughters, Viola and Mary, were arrested as the ringleaders and charged with disorderly conduct, as Sadie Chambers and Ethel Miller told the police the Moore women started the riot by calling them names. As far as the police could learn the women's aim was poor and no one was hurt.

HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING.

National Mary Washington Memorial Association in Session.

The annual meeting of the National Mary Washington Memorial Association of which Mrs. Eleanor S. Washington Howard, of this city, is president, was held yesterday afternoon in Memorial Continental Hall. The association is a self-perpetuating organization, only the "inheritor" of an original member being eligible for membership. Its purpose—that of placing a monument over the grave of Mary Washington, mother of George Washington—was the first work undertaken by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The officers of the association are a board of directors of which the President of the United States, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and the Governor of Virginia are, ex-officio, trustees; and the following active officers: Mrs. Eleanor S. Washington Howard, president; Mrs. Charles W. Lippitt, vice-president; Mrs. Edmund Pendelton, vice-president; Miss Minnie F. Mickey, secretary; Blair Lee, treasurer; Major Robert Hunter, Mrs. W. W. Wilcox and Miss Maude Lee Davidge.

Charges Against Moore.

Details of the methods used by Professor Willis L. Moore, chief of the Weather Bureau in an effort to get the cabinet place as secretary of Agriculture, and which resulted in President Wilson asking him to resign, will be laid before the house in the next few days by H. Robert Fowler, of Illinois.

Mr. Fowler has introduced a resolution calling for a report on how much government money Moore spent in traveling between last November and March, how much he spent in promoting subordinates, and what orders he gave Charles T. Burns, an employe of the bureau, who campaigned in Moore's behalf.

C. F. Van Herman, director in charge of the weather office at Atlanta, Ga., has made a report to the Secretary of Agriculture, covering certain meetings in Atlanta last November, when it is said Burns went there to get the support of the labor unions and others in behalf of his chief's candidacy.

It is charged that Moore has practically exhausted his traveling expense fund of the bureau, although the fiscal year has not nearly ended; that unprecedented promotions were made after his candidacy was announced, and that these promotions left a shortage of $4,700 in the bureau's funds, which had to be made up by taking $4,000 from the telegraph fund and $700 from the investigating fund.
